

Kyle Kammien

Associate

Washington, D.C. | (202) 218 4380

kkammien@daypitney.com

Overview

Kyle Kammien advises clients on regulatory compliance, energy law, and clean energy-related policy issues, drawing on nearly a decade of experience in government affairs and climate policy advocacy. Prior to joining the firm, Kyle served as the National Policy Director at Dream.org, where he led federal climate policy campaigns and built coalitions focused on equity and sustainability. His background also includes roles in stakeholder engagement and grassroots advocacy at Citizens' Climate Lobby and The Home Depot.

Education and Credentials

Education

George Washington University Law School, J.D., 2024

Saint Louis University, Richard A. Chaifetz School of Business, B.S., 2015

Admissions

District of Columbia

Practices & Industries

Energy Law