Overview

Blair R. Springer is a trusted advisor to clients across a wide range of transactional matters, with a particular focus on domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions. He regularly counsels strategic buyers, sellers, and investors through all phases of the deal lifecycle—from structuring and negotiation to closing and post-transaction integration—across a variety of industries.

In addition to his M&A work, Blair advises early-stage and emerging growth companies on entity formation, venture financings, and general corporate governance. He also represents both lenders and borrowers in complex secured and unsecured financing transactions.

Blair has notable experience in the maritime and transportation sectors, where he serves as both lead and special maritime counsel in secured debt financings. His clients include banks, non-bank lenders, and operating companies active in these capital-intensive industries.
