Beyond Salary: Considerations for Law Students Selecting Their First Law Firm

Day Pitney Florida Offices Managing Partner Manuel Garcia-Linares and Litigation Partner Georgia Thompson authored the article, "Beyond Salary: Considerations for Law Students Selecting Their First Law Firm," for Daily Business Review. The article discusses how when selecting a law firm where they can build and grow a successful career, law students must be mindful to consider additional important factors such as a firm's culture, opportunities for mentorship, access to hands-on experience, work-life balance, areas of practice, and commitment to strategic growth.
