Patently Enabled February 2024 – What is the Disclosure-Dedication Doctrine?

The purpose of this monthly series Patently Enabled is to share simplified patent related information to assist non-patent practitioners in making the best decisions when considering their intellectual property rights.

In the February edition of Patently Enabled, Jonathan Tropp and Emily Ferriter Russo discuss how the disclosure-dedication doctrine may protect patent applicants against potential infringement claims and how inventors can avoid its pitfalls.

For any patent related comments, questions or other inquiries, please contact registered patent attorney Emily Ferriter Russo.
