Probate: New Jersey

Day Pitney Trusts and Estates Partners Angela Titus McEwan and Richard Sanders authored the Q&A titled, "Probate: New Jersey," for Thomson Reuters' Practical Law. The article is a guide to the laws of probate in New Jersey, and addresses state laws and customs that impact the process of an estate proceeding, including the key statues and rules related to estate proceedings, the different types of estate proceedings available in New Jersey, and the processes for opening an estate, appointing an estate fiduciary, administering the estate, handling creditor claims, and closing the estate.
