December 22, 2015

NJDEP Proposes Controversial Amendments to the Flood Hazard Area Act Rules

Kate Coffey and Catherine Nolan authored an article, "NJDEP Proposes Controversial Amendments to the Flood Hazard Area Act Rules," in New Jersey Business Association's Newsletter. The article delves into the politics surrounding New Jersey Department of Environmental Protection's proposed amendments to the Flood Hazard Area Control Act rules, and related rules under the Coastal Zone Management Act and the Stormwater Management Act.

Authors

Katharine A. Coffey
Partner

Parsippany, NJ | (973) 966-8323

kcoffey@daypitney.com