Assignment for the Benefit of the Creditors? One Creditor's Experience With an Archaic State Insolvency Process

Day Pitney Litigation Senior Associate Michael J. Fitzpatrick and Partner Mark Salah Morgan authored an article titled, "Assignment for the Benefit of the Creditors? One Creditor's Experience With an Archaic State Insolvency Process," for the New Jersey Law Journal. The article is an interview with Neil Glasser, Chief Financial Officer for MJH Life Sciences, which is one of the largest privately held healthcare communications companies in the U.S., regarding his experience with an Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors (ABC) and his perspective on the law.
