COVID-19 Impact on Tax Filings in Florida

State mandated closures and other governmental regulations issued to mitigate the spread of COVID-19 are drastically impacting the business world. Day Pitney continues to evaluate the rapidly changing legal landscape in order to provide the most up-to-date information together with practical business counsel to our clients, advisors, and partners.

On March 26, the Florida Department of Revenue Executive Director Jim Zingale issued Order of Emergency Waiver/Deviation # 20-52-DOR-002 to extend certain filing deadlines for Florida businesses. The order addresses February and March reporting periods for the following taxes and fees:

- Sales and use tax, including discretionary sales surtax
- Tourist development tax
- Solid waste fees, including new tire fee, lead-acid battery fee, dry-cleaning gross receipts, and rental car surcharge
- Prepaid wireless E911 fees

March 2020 Reporting Period

The order states taxpayers not adversely affected by the COVID-19 outbreak are required to continue to file and pay taxes collected during March 2020, on or before April 20.

For taxpayers who have been adversely affected by the COVID-19 outbreak, the order extends the due date for March 2020 returns and payments to April 30, 2020. Note: To meet the April 30 deadline, electronic payments must be initiated by 5:00 p.m. ET on April 29.

Adversely Affected

The order defines "adversely affected" as any of the following conditions:

- The business closed in March in compliance with a state or local government order issued in response to the COVID-19 outbreak and following the closure had no taxable transactions for the taxes listed above.
- The business experienced sales tax collections in March that are less than 75% of March 2019 sales tax collections.
- The business was established after March 2019.
- The business is registered with the Department to file quarterly.
