May 19, 2022

Proceed with Caution: NJ's Green Lighting of Recreational Cannabis May Require Detours

Day Pitney Commercial Litigation and White Collar Partner Naju R. Lathia and Employment and Labor and Regulated Substances Attorney Daniel Pierre authored the article, "Proceed with Caution: NJ's Green Lighting of Recreational Cannabis May Require Detours," for the New Jersey Law Journal. The article discusses the new status of cannabis in New Jersey and how it raises uncertainty and questions for law enforcement and employers, resulting in a potential murky area for all state residents.

Read the full article here.

Authors

Naju R. Lathia
Partner

Parsippany, NJ | (973) 966-8082

nlathia@daypitney.com