Overview

Lucas Rondan assists high net worth individuals and families with trust and estate matters. He drafts comprehensive estate plans that reflect each client's unique needs and goals, ensuring their intentions are fully realized through thoughtful planning. He also works on matters involving special needs planning, estate administration, and trust administration.

While at Boston College Law School, Lucas served as treasurer for the Latin American Law Students Association (LALSA), where he supported law students of Latin American descent in preparing for job interviews and pursuing careers in the legal field. He also participated in the Boston College Innocence Program, assisting wrongfully convicted clients in their efforts to achieve exoneration through investigation and legal advocacy.

Lucas was a summer associate with Day Pitney in May 2024.
