Overview

Scott Beach advises family offices, family enterprises, private equity investors, and emerging growth companies in formation, debt and equity financings, mergers and acquisitions, strategic joint ventures, technology arrangements, and general corporate matters. He routinely advises clients in structuring, forming and operating family offices, private investment funds, partnerships, and joint ventures. Scott counsels investment fund principals and managers, and portfolio company executives, in connection with their employment and equity compensation arrangements. He advises clients in connection with their investments in professional sports franchises (including MLB, NBA and MLS teams, as well as eSports organizations). Scott also advises tax-exempt organizations (including foundations, academic institutions and religious organizations) and their Boards in matters of strategic planning and corporate governance. Scott also serves as editor-in-chief of Generations, Day Pitney's family office newsletter, which provides legal and business insights on trends, developments and opportunities relevant to family offices, family businesses, multigenerational families, and their advisers.

Scott has been recognized with several prestigious distinctions. He has been ranked in *Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business (Chambers & Partners) as a recognized practitioner for Corporate/M&A in Connecticut since 2012. According to *Chambers USA, he is “known for his private funds expertise and regularly advises managers on venture capital and real estate investments.” Chambers USA has also noted Scott is a skilled and experienced attorney in private equity matters and a client enthused, "He is excellent during negotiations. He remains focused on the key objectives." Scott was also described by clients as "thorough and calm under pressure." He was selected as the Mergers & Acquisitions "Lawyer of the Year" for the Stamford Area by Best Lawyers in America (Woodward/White, Inc.) for three years, 2021, 2023, and 2025. In 2026, he was named to the inaugural Lawdragon 100 Global Wealth Lawyers list.
