Overview

Stephanie Rapp, a Florida Bar Board Certified Wills, Trusts and Estates Lawyer, focuses her practice on sophisticated estate planning for high net worth individuals and families, developing customized, tax-efficient strategies that reflect each client's unique priorities and goals. She builds trusted relationships through a conscientious and personal approach, taking the time to understand family dynamics, wealth structures, and long-term objectives to craft tailored plans that achieve clarity and peace of mind.

A significant portion of her practice involves advising clients on domicile changes to Florida and addressing related homestead and other nuances specific to Florida law as well as federal estate, gift and transfer tax considerations. Stephanie has extensive experience in managing estate and trust administration matters in and out of the Florida court systems, where she is skilled in navigating contentious issues and advising fiduciaries on their duties and responsibilities.

Stephanie earned her J.D., cum laude, from Southern Methodist University School of Law and her B.S., cum laude, from the University of Florida. She is admitted to practice in Florida.
