Overview

Daniel "Dan" Schwartz represents employers in a wide variety of litigation matters, including but not limited to claims alleging wrongful termination, discrimination, harassment, hostile work environment, breach of contract, whistleblower retaliation, violation of wage statutes and infliction of emotional distress. He represents companies and individuals in injunction hearings arising from and related to non-competition, non-solicitation and/or confidential information agreements. Dan also defends schools and other institutions from negligence and other claims arising from allegations of inappropriate sexual relationships and conduct. In conjunction with his active litigation practice, Dan counsels and advises employers on hiring procedures, drug testing, employment contracts, employee handbooks, employee benefit plans, internal investigations, accommodation of disabilities, harassment prevention, employee disciplinary issues, termination decisions and other employment-related issues. Dan assists clients in avoiding litigation, in developing the best available defenses to litigation, and, where necessary, in prevailing in litigation.

As a senior partner with more than thirty years of experience, Dan often serves in the role of outside general counsel. In this capacity, he coordinates with other partners at the firm to assist clients in addressing a wide variety of legal issues, including, but not limited to, construction contracts, land use, environmental issues, property leases, vendor contracts, tax issues, social media issues, contract disputes, succession planning, joint ventures and corporate governance. The clients with whom Dan regularly works include private equity firms, hedge funds, family offices, wealth managers, investment banks, insurers, banks, credit unions, manufacturers, restaurants, private and parochial schools, colleges and universities, and non-profit organizations.

Dan consistently has been ranked as a recognized practitioner for Labor and Employment in Connecticut by *Chambers USA** (Chambers & Partners), *The Best Lawyers in America** (Woodward/White, Inc.).
