Day Pitney Expands Sports, Media, and Entertainment Practice with Addition of Juan Delgado

Day Pitney LLP is pleased to announce that Juan P. Delgado has joined the firm as a partner and co-chair of the firm's Sports, Media, and Entertainment practice. Delgado brings nearly 30 years of experience advising media, entertainment, and technology companies, as well as extensive corporate, M&A, and family office experience. He will be based in the firm's Miami office.

Prior to joining Day Pitney, Delgado served as vice president and head of business and legal affairs, Latin America for Paramount Global, where he led high-profile transactions and legal strategies across the region. He also previously spent 15 years at Comcast-NBCUniversal's US Hispanic division, Telemundo Media, handling major media transactions, regulatory compliance, and corporate governance matters. Additionally, Delgado founded and successfully built his own boutique law firm, representing more than 150 clients across the sports, media, and entertainment industries.

"With Juan's addition, we continue to build on the strength of our Corporate, IP, and LATAM practices while expanding the breadth of our sports, media, entertainment, and branding service offerings to our corporate and family enterprise clients," said R. Scott Beach, chair of Day Pitney's Corporate and Business Law department. "His broad and multifaceted experience in the sports and entertainment industry will enhance our firm's ability to handle complex corporate transactions and disputes involving IP and other commercial assets both nationally and globally."

Day Pitney's Sports, Media, and Entertainment practice advises clients on a broad range of corporate, transactional, regulatory, and intellectual property matters, including content licensing, production agreements, M&A, labor and employment, and emerging technologies such as AI and streaming platforms. Delgado's leadership will strengthen the firm's position in these industries, with a particular focus on Latin America and cross-border transactions.

"As we experience a time of significant disruption and change in the sports, media, and entertainment industries, I am thrilled to join Day Pitney and help lead the growth of its Sports, Media, and Entertainment practice," said Delgado. "The firm's strong corporate and IP foundation, combined with its interdisciplinary approach, provide the perfect platform to serve our clients in these industries."

Delgado's arrival also supports Day Pitney's strategic expansion in Florida and enhances the firm's LATAM practice, which serves high-net-worth individuals, family offices, family-owned enterprises, and corporations across the region.

Delgado is an active member of the Florida Bar and has been a member of the Entertainment, Arts and Sports Law section since 1999, joining its Executive Board in 2021. He earned his J.D. from Florida State University College of Law and B.S. from the University of Florida. Delgado is admitted to practice in Florida.
