Day Pitney LLP is proud to share that the firm, along with 22 attorneys from its Private Client Department, has been recognized in the *2025 Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) Guide, reflecting continued growth in attorney recognition from prior editions. Published by Chambers and Partners, this prestigious guide serves the global private wealth market, highlighting top legal professionals who advise high net worth individuals and families. It features comprehensive editorial content on leading firms and practitioners engaged in private wealth planning, estate and trust administration, tax, and related services across key jurisdictions.

The firm ranked once again in the Chambers HNW Guide for Private Wealth Law nationally, and in Connecticut, Florida, Massachusetts, New Jersey, New York, and Rhode Island. Building on a year of continued growth and strong results, the firm added five attorneys to the rankings and gained recognition in the Florida market.
