Day Pitney's Sandra Ferrera Named 2025 Bisnow South Florida Women Leading Real Estate Honoree

Day Pitney LLP is pleased to announce that Miami Real Estate Partner Sandra M. Ferrera has been named a 2025 Bisnow South Florida Women Leading Real Estate honoree. Ferrera was recognized on August 28 at the 2025 Bisnow South Florida Women Leading Real Estate Awards ceremony in the Excellence in Legal/Accounting category for her leadership in complex real estate structuring and her lasting contributions to the growth and transformation of Miami's commercial real estate market.

According to Bisnow, the Women Leading Real Estate honor celebrates women who are shaping the future of commercial real estate across South Florida. This distinction recognizes professionals at all levels who are redefining leadership and promoting greater equity and representation within the industry. Candidates were nominated by members of the local commercial real estate community, with final honorees selected by Bisnow based on their impact, leadership qualities, and meaningful contributions to the field. “Sandy's well-earned recognition exemplifies the caliber of leadership and excellence we champion at Day Pitney,” commented Florida Offices Managing Partner Manuel A. Garcia-Linares. “Her deep involvement in the real estate industry and the positive impact she's had on the Miami market reflect the forward-thinking and collaborative values this honor celebrates. We're proud to acknowledge her achievements and the lasting value she brings to our clients, our firm, and the broader real estate community.”

In her practice, Ferrera represents real estate developers, lenders, and borrowers in all phases of complex commercial real estate transactions, including negotiating and closing acquisitions, sales, development deals, and both acquisition and construction financing. She also advises clients on lease negotiations, loan restructuring and enforcement, and has significant experience drafting condominium and homeowner association documents, successor developer filings, as well as managing all aspects of real estate closings and documentation.

Ferrera is an active member of the legal and business community, with a strong commitment to professional development, education, and civic engagement. She is actively involved with the Florida Bar's Real Property, Probate, and Trust Law Section, including its Condominium and Planned Development Committee. Ferrera is a member of numerous professional and community organizations, including the Florida Association for Women Lawyers (Miami-Dade Chapter), the Dade County Bar Association, the Hispanic National Bar Association, the South Florida Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, and Miami-Dade County CREW (Commercial Real Estate Women). She is a Past President of the Cuban American Bar Association and currently serves as a Board Member of the Cuban American Bar Foundation. Deeply committed to advancing legal education and mentorship, Ferrera is a Board Member of the University of Miami School of Law Alumni Association and an active member of the University of Miami Citizens Board. Ferrera earned her Juris Doctor, cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts degree from Florida International University. She is admitted to practice law in the State of Florida.
