Day Pitney Shortlisted for 2026 Family Wealth Report Awards

Congratulations to our Family Office Practice and Private Client Department for being shortlisted in three categories in the upcoming 2026 Family Wealth Report Awards: Outstanding Contribution to Wealth Management Thought Leadership (Company), Solutions for International Americans, and Legal Team of the Year.

We are especially proud to see this recognition continue, following our shortlisting in these categories in 2025, and past wins in multiple categories. These nominations reflect our commitment to delivering thoughtful and trusted counsel to family office and private wealth clients.

Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony on April 30 in New York City. For additional information on the awards and methodology, click here.
