Day Pitney Earns Prominent Recognition in 2026 Legal 500 US Private Client Guide

Day Pitney LLP is proud to announce its recognition in the 2026 Legal 500 US Private Client Guide, a leading directory of top lawyers and law firms serving high-net-worth individuals and families. The guide highlights top-tier practitioners in New York, California, and Florida, handling sophisticated art and cultural property matters, complex family law issues, and comprehensive private wealth planning at the highest levels of the legal market.

In its 2026 edition, Legal 500 recognized Day Pitney for the strength and depth of its private client practices in both Florida and New York—two of the most competitive and dynamic private wealth markets in the country. These recognitions underscore the firm's longstanding commitment to delivering strategic, forward-thinking counsel to individuals, families, fiduciaries, and closely held businesses.

The Legal 500 rankings are based on rigorous independent research, including in-depth interviews with leading practitioners and clients, peer feedback, and detailed analysis of significant matters handled over the past year. Ranked firms and attorneys undergo a comprehensive review by the publication's editorial team, making inclusion a meaningful endorsement of excellence, client service, and market leadership.

Day Pitney's Legal 500 rankings are as follows:
