Litigation Associate Potoula Tournas has been installed as Co-Chair of the Fairfield County Bar Association's Civil Litigation Committee

The Civil Litigation Committee serves attorneys practicing in civil litigation matters throughout Fairfield County and provides educational programming, professional development opportunities, and resources focused on litigation practice and procedure. Through its programs and initiatives, the Committee promotes excellence in advocacy and fosters engagement among members of the local legal community.

As Co-Chair, Potoula will help lead the Committee's efforts to support practitioners, advance professional education, and strengthen the civil litigation bar throughout Fairfield County.
