Claire Gibson Elected Secretary of the NYSBA Intellectual Property Law Section

New York Intellectual Property Counsel Claire Gibson was elected as Secretary of the New York State Bar Association's (NYSBA) Intellectual Property Law Section for the 2026–2028 term.

Claire will serve alongside the Section's other Executive Officers: Nyasha S. Foy (Chair).; Leonie Huang (Vice Chair); and Donna A. Tobin (Treasurer). Together, the officers will support the Section's work on issues and developments affecting IP practitioners throughout New York.

We are proud to congratulate Claire on this leadership role and look forward to her continued contributions to the NYSBA Intellectual Property Law Section.
