Day Pitney Welcomes Eleven Summer Apprentices

Day Pitney LLP today announced the members of its 2012 Summer Apprenticeship Program. Eleven law students will be resident in the firm's Hartford and Parsippany offices this summer, where they will split their time between transactional and litigation work.

The Summer Apprenticeship Program was launched in 2010. It gives law students a unique opportunity to experience the daily life of a law firm, gaining hands-on experience working with attorneys and each other in a collaborative environment. The program begins May 29 and will run for 10 weeks.

Here are the summer apprentices, along with their respective office locations:
