Day Pitney Featured in GIR 100 2016

Stamford, Conn., October 5, 2016 - Day Pitney is pleased to announce that it has been selected for the GIR 100 2016, an independent guide to the world's leading law firms for international investigations, compiled by the U.K.-based publication Global Investigations Review (GIR). This is the second year the firm has been ranked in the annual guide. The GIR editorial team selects 100 firms from around the world able to handle sophisticated cross-border government-led and internal investigations.

The profile on GIR's website highlights the firm's Government Enforcement and White Collar Criminal team, which routinely defends and counsels corporate clients and individuals in, among other matters, complex grand jury investigations, regulatory probes and investigations.

"The firm focuses on alleged violations of securities, healthcare, tax, antitrust and environmental law, as well as political corruption, the FCPA and the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act. Day Pitney also advises companies on complying with economic and trade sanctions, including how to avoid liability for the acts of third parties," says the GIR profile.

*Global Investigation Review 100 results are issued by Law Business Research Limited – an independent, multi award-winning publisher of research, data and analysis on international business law and international legal markets.
