Chris Stracco Appointed Trustee for NJ Bar's IOLTA Fund

The New Jersey Supreme Court has appointed Chris Stracco to a five-year term as a Trustee for the IOLTA Fund of the Bar of New Jersey. Chris' term commenced March 1. The IOLTA Fund operates under the auspices of the court and is dedicated to providing legal representation and assistance to the poor, improvements in the administration of justice, and legal education to the public. This appointment continues Chris' dedication to public service, including helping those less fortunate.

More information about IOLTA is available here.
