April 25, 2024

Generations Spring 2024 - Day Pitney's Family Office Practice and Attorneys Receive Recognition and Accolades

Day Pitney's Family Office Practice and Attorneys have received numerous industry accolades over the past few months. In February, the firm secured "Best Law Firm – Estates and Trusts" at the 2024 Private Asset Management (PAM) Awards. Also in February, the 2024 Family Wealth Report (FWR) Awards named Day Pitney a finalist for the "Legal Team of the Year" category, as well as the "Cyber Security" and "Solutions for International Americans" categories. Winners for the FWR awards will be announced in early May. We are also proud to share that Boca Raton Attorneys Brian Thompson and Jay Mussman received special commendations for their Pro Bono efforts by the Legal Aid Society of Palm Beach County on March 13. Brian took home the "Probate Law Award" at last month's 15th Judicial Circuit Pro Bono Committees ceremony as well.

New Haven Partner Rebecca Iannantuoni was recognized with "The Honorable Anthony V. DeMayo Pro Bono Award" on April 3 by the Connecticut Bar Association. On April 4, three of our Florida based attorneys were recognized by the Daily Business Review Florida Legal Awards. Boca Raton Partner Jim Ballerano is a Lifetime Acheivement Award Honoree. Two Miami Partners also received recognition, Manny Garcia-Linares as a Cross-Border Disputes Category Finalist, and Georgia Thompson as an On the Rise (Small/Midsize Firm) Honoree.

Two of our Rhode Island attorneys were selected as winners for the 2024 Providence Business News Women Awards with Providence Office Managing Partner Renee Evangelista winning the "Best Mentor" accolade and Partner Emma Becker being highlighted as a "Woman to Watch." West Palm Beach Partner Tasha Dickinson was recently recognized as an honoree at the 2024 Prestigious Women Awards by South Florida Business & Wealth.

We congratulate our Practice and Attorneys in these recognitions. They continue to illustrate our multifaceted capabilities serving high-net-worth individuals, family offices and family enterprises, and why our clients have placed their trust in us for over a century.

The highest court of any state has approved no aspect of these advertisements. See Awards Methodology.