Day Pitney Relocates West Palm Beach Office

Day Pitney LLP announced today that it has relocated its West Palm Beach office to 360 Rosemary from its previous location at One Clearlake Centre. The firm has a total of 13 offices in the United States, three of which are in Florida, the other locations being in Boca Raton and Miami.

"Our new office, located at 360 South Rosemary Avenue, is in the heart of West Palm Beach and will enable us to better serve our clients where they both work and live," said Manuel Garcia-Linares, managing partner of the firm's Florida offices. "The space is designed to accommodate our evolving office space needs along with our hybrid work model, including support for a collegial and collaborative workplace culture for our attorneys, staff and clientele. We look forward to exceeding our clients' needs in South Florida."

"Given the ongoing migration of clients south, our new West Palm Beach office enables us to conveniently service more of our trusts and estates, family office, litigation, commercial and residential real estate, and tax clients," added Tasha Dickinson, a member of the firm's Executive Board and partner in the West Palm Beach office.

The firm represents clients in the United States and internationally through its core departments: Corporate and Business Law, Litigation and Private Client.

360 Rosemary is located in the central business district amidst the vibrant shopping, flexible green spaces and entertainment options of downtown West Palm Beach. Amenities include 10,000 square feet of outdoor amenity space including two terraces, an on-site conference facility, rooftop deck, lobby cafe and fitness center. The Class A building is directly adjacent to the Brightline station, offering high-speed rail service to South Florida's other major urban centers.
