Day Pitney Supports University of Miami School of Law Ray H. Pearson Memorial Scholarship Fund

Day Pitney has pledged $5,000 to the University of Miami School of Law's Ray H. Pearson Memorial Scholarship Fund. The scholarship allows the law school to provide world-class educational and professional opportunities to University of Miami School of Law students so they can help address the world's greatest problems, a goal that is now more important than ever. Pearson was one of the founders of Frates Fay Floyd and Pearson, the predecessor firm to Richman Greer, which merged with Day Pitney in 2019.
