April 7, 2014

Day Pitney Represents Federal Reserve Bank of New York in Property Tax Dispute

An article appeared in the Bergen Record discussing a Federal suit filed by Day Pitney partner Christopher J. Stracco on behalf of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York challenging a $321 million municipal property tax assessment valuation East Rutherford placed on the bank's 13.2-acre facility in New Jersey. Chris was interviewed and quoted in the article.