Angela Titus McEwan Elected as a Fellow of the ACTEC

Angela Titus McEwan has been elected as a fellow of The American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC).

ACTEC is a national professional organization of approximately 2,600 lawyers who have been elected to membership by demonstrating the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors.

To qualify for membership, a lawyer must have no less than 10 years' experience in the active practice of trust and estate law. Lawyers and professors are elected to be Fellows based on their outstanding reputation, exceptional skill and substantial contributions to the field by lecturing, writing, teaching and participating in bar leadership or legislative activities. It is their aim to improve and reform probate, trust and tax laws, procedures and professional responsibility.

McEwan was elected as a Fellow of the College during the ACTEC Board of Regents Annual Meeting on March 7 in San Antonio, TX.
