Day Pitney Welcomes Its 2009 Incoming Associate Class

Day Pitney LLP announced today that 13 first-year associates have started with the firm in four of its offices—two in Boston, four in Hartford, CT, two in Stamford, CT, and five in Florham Park, NJ.

The first-year class is a diverse group of bright young professionals from top schools, including many with backgrounds that will be of immediate value to Day Pitney's clients. Among the group are an economist, an MBA holder, a LEED-certified professional, a New Jersey Supreme Court clerk and a decorated U.S. Air Force veteran.

"We are extremely pleased to welcome these exceptional young attorneys," said Judith Babinski, a member of Day Pitney's executive committee. "We expect they will make outstanding contributions to the firm."
