Day Pitney Welcomes Ten New Associates for Fall 2018

Day Pitney LLP announced today that ten new associates are joining the firm this fall across its offices. The incoming associates are a diverse mix of attorneys with experience and insights gained through judicial clerkships, advanced law degrees or as summer associates, which will be of immediate value to the firm's clients.

"We are delighted to welcome our incoming class, which represents an accomplished group of individuals," said Tom Goldberg, Day Pitney's Managing Partner. "As our firm continues to grow, we look forward to drawing on this group's talent and experience, and collaborating with them to deliver top-quality legal services to our clients."

The ten new associates are:

Matthew B. Danzer, Complex Commercial Litigation. Danzer most recently served as a law clerk to The Honorable Gerard E. Lynch of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit in New York, NY.
