David A. Swerdloff was honored by the Association of Corporate Counsel (ACC) Westchester/Southern Connecticut Chapter (formerly WESFACCA) at its annual meeting with an award for his many years of service to WESFACCA. He has served as the long-time co-chair of the business law programming committee and as a frequent speaker. The award credits Swerdloff as "a lawyer who exemplifies dignity, kindness and acumen." The Westchester/Southern Connecticut Chapter has over 700 members from legal departments at public and private companies located in Westchester County, New York, and Fairfield and New Haven Counties, Connecticut. Day Pitney has long been a sponsor of the organization.
