June 2, 2013

Day Pitney's Pro Bono Work with SCARC Guardianship Services Highlighted by NJ.com

Day Pitney's pro bono program helping families of developmentally disabled adults obtain guardianship of their relatives was mentioned in a NJ.com article on June 2, featuring the Sussex County Association for Retarded Citizens' (SCARC) Guardianship Services. Attorneys from Day Pitney's office offer free legal representation for SCARC Guardianship Services clients experiencing economic hardship.

The full article can be found here.