Marie Caroline Bertrand Honored by the Connecticut Bar Foundation as a James W. Cooper Fellow

Marie Caroline Bertrand has been honored by the Connecticut Bar Foundation as a James W. Cooper Fellow, a designation given each year to recognize outstanding Connecticut attorneys, judges and teachers of law. Bertrand's professionalism and commitment to her work earned her the nomination and, ultimately, her selection to the Fellows. The James W. Cooper Fellows serve the goal of the Connecticut Bar Foundation by sponsoring programs and projects that address matters concerning the legal profession, the administration of justice, and the role of law in society. The Fellows also serve this mission through projects that educate the public about the role of the rule of law. More information about the Fellows programs can be found here.
