Day Pitney Recognized by CT Law Tribune's Second Annual New England Legal Awards

Day Pitney is proud to announce that two of our Connecticut-based attorneys and our Litigation department have been recognized by the Connecticut Law Tribune as part of their second annual New England Legal Awards. According to the publication, the awards recognize exceptional attorneys and firms from Connecticut, Maine, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts and Rhode Island across various legal domains.

This recognition highlights the exceptional talent within the firm's New England offices, and underscores Day Pitney's strong legacy in the region.

Attorneys and departments recognized by Connecticut Law Tribune are:

- Stanley A. Twardy, Jr. (Stamford) – Lifetime Achievement Winner
- Ashley Picker Dubin (Hartford) – Legal Innovators & Disrupters Finalist
- Litigation Department – Litigation Departments of the Year: General Litigation Finalist

The awards will be celebrated on September 26 at the Fairmont Copley Plaza in Boston.
