Day Pitney Partner Gary S. Betensky Appointed a Journal Editor of ABA Business Torts and Unfair Competition Committee

Partner Gary S. Betensky has been appointed to serve as a Journal Editor of the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Litigation's Business Torts and Unfair Competition Committee. In this role, Betensky, along with co-editors, will oversee the publication and editing of the Business Torts Journal and other publications issued by the Committee.

Betensky has been a member of the Business Torts and Unfair Competition Committee for 10 years. He will serve in this leadership role as a Journal Editor through 2020. Betensky is a seasoned litigator, representing clients in complex business disputes and dispute resolution through his civil trial practice at Day Pitney. He has more than 35 years of experience in trials, litigation and in the resolution of complex matters that include allegations of fraud and interference with business relationships, violations of non-compete agreements and theft of trade secrets, as well as defamation.

The Business Torts and Unfair Competition Committee keeps business litigators informed on issues such as fiduciary duties, fraud, unfair trade practices, tortious interference, trademarks and trade secrets, remedies and evidence, as well as technological issues and developments impacting the practice.
