OVERVIEW

Christina Asimacos counsels high net worth individuals and families on trusts and estates matters. She assists clients with estate planning, estate and trust administration, tax planning for individuals and businesses, tax controversies and charitable giving. Clients seek her guidance in creating sophisticated estate plans, including the establishment of private foundations, split interest trusts, grantor retained annuity trusts, dynasty trusts, qualified and joint qualified personal residence trusts, and other grantor trusts.

Christina also has significant experience in the administration of large estates involving post-mortem planning and complicated family dynamics, planning for retirement benefits, sales and gifts of business and real property interests, and international estate planning.
