OVERVIEW

Danielle Furneaux focuses her practice on tax and succession planning for high-net-worth individuals and families. She advises on domestic and international tax matters, including trust and estate planning, cross-border planning, entity structuring, and US tax filing requirements. Danielle assists clients with the development and implementation of tax-efficient planning strategies tailored to the unique needs of each individual or family. She has experience representing beneficiaries and fiduciaries in complex trust and estate administration matters, including managing all aspects of the estate administration process. Danielle also has experience working with family offices.

Prior to her legal career, Danielle was an international tax associate at a Big Four accounting firm.
